Michael Lederer Joins TWC Aviation as Director of Aircraft Sales and Acquisitions

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (February 7, 2011)—TWC Aviation, Inc., a worldwide leader in private jet aviation, today announced that industry veteran Michael Lederer has joined the company's management team as Director of Aircraft Sales and Acquisition. Mr. Lederer has nearly 30 years of experience helping clients acquire and sell aircraft. Before joining TWC Aviation, he was an award-winning sales executive at Bombardier Aerospace.

"With his integrity, experience, and knowledge of business aircraft, Mike is one of our industry's top professionals," said Andrew Richmond, CEO of TWC Aviation. "He is respected by customers and competitors alike, and is a great addition to the TWC team."

At Bombardier, Mr. Lederer sold Learjet, Challenger, and Global Express aircraft to corporations, and high net worth individuals. Previously, he held key sales and management positions at Cessna Aircraft Company. He holds an Airline Transport Pilot Rating (ATP) with some 6500 hours in various aircraft types. Mr. Lederer has a B.S. in Communication & Management from Ohio University.
